THE '57 SAGA

Highlights from the past are reflected in the Saga of this year. We hope that you will enjoy these glimpses of Ancient Greece and Rome, as well as the other features of the Saga for 1956-1957.

OUR PRINCIPAL

As the school year closes I wish you seniors the best things possible. May you leave Woodward High School with the determination to make your lives worth while. To do this you must not only think of yourselves but of others. You must work, study, and continue to grow mentally and spiritually.

To the other students; return in the fall with the determination to make the most of your opportunities at Woodward High School.

Jackie:
 Lots of luck to a real nice girl. I have had a lot of fun sitting next to you in English this year. I hope I didn't bother you too much by talking to you. Maybe I will see you next year in some of my classes. Have a nice summer.

Each of us in life travel a different road. But one journey is accomplished in a better mood and sincerity to our cause in life, all because of people like you who gives courage, love, and faith to the lonely traveler on the road to the future.

Elias Jones.

Best of luck to
